DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen Announces New Hire and Promotion

WACO, Texas – (April 25, 2008) – DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen, a national leader in home remodeling, announces staff changes within its franchise systems management department.

Crystal Bell was appointed as department assistant and Jimmy Bartlett was promoted to vice president of the department.

“We welcome Crystal to the DreamMaker family,” said Doug Dwyer, president and owner of DreamMaker Bath & Kitchen. “Her proven experience in human resource management is an asset to our company.”

Prior to joining DreamMaker, Bell handled employee relations and new hire selection and training with ARAMARK. Bell is a graduate of the University of North Texas where she earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration with an emphasis in human resource management and organizational behavior.

Jimmy Bartlett joined DreamMaker in June 2007 as special projects director. As vice president of the franchise systems management department, Bartlett will continue to spearhead technology-related projects, and use his extensive background in remodeling to further lead the DreamMaker network.

“DreamMaker has a strong, established franchise team,” said Bartlett. “I am looking forward to working closely with franchisees in my new role and continue to strengthen and grow the brand together.”
